

THE HINDU

13th MARCH, 2009.

Hindustani music

The annual Gharana Indian Music Festival, hosted by Prakriti Foundation, which will showcase the rich artistic tradition Hindustani music, will be held from March 23-25th at the Museum Theatre, Egmore. On March 23, 7 p.m., enjoy a sitar recital by Ustad Irshad Khan (nephew of Ustad Vilayat Khan) with Rudra Narayan Kalyan on tabla. On March 24, 7 p.m., Pandit Krishna Ram Choudhary and Hemant Raj Choudhary will present a shehnai recital with Sumit on the tabla, Vivek on the harmonium, Deepak on swarpetti and Mangal Prasad on dukkad. On March 25, 7 p.m., the legendary Shanno Khurana will present a vocal recital with Akhtar Hasan on the tabla, Bharat Bhushan Goswami on sarangi and Maitreyi Majumdar on swaramandal.

Donor passes priced Rs. 500 and Rs. 300 are available at Amethyst, Chapiers and all Landmark outlets. Daily passes are available at the venue. For details, contact 25427941 or 42150950 or email Media-mix.events@gmail.com for home delivery.